Ask your veterinarian first about animal health and behavior.

Google retrieves search results to maximize profits, not animal health.

It is better for your animal’s health and your wallet to seek information from trusted sources, five examples below, after visiting your veterinarian.

Sources recommended by your veterinarian.

www.react.vet: common emergency conditions horses for owners and vets.

tiny.utk.edu/SARE: usable info written by trusted authors. See the Small Ruminant Toolkit for example!

VeterinaryPartner.com: trustworthy information written by vets or vet techs. A service of VIN.COM
