Google Scholar “All X versions” feature may be quickest route to a freely accessible archived version of an article.

When to use: corresponding author’s email address is too hard to find, or doesn’t work.

Step #1
To find article, type title in Google Scholar search box.

Step #2 Clicking on “All X versions” may lead to a freely accessible copy.

Bonus Tip: Clicking on “Cited by YY” finds related articles by citation.
