"Along with Governor Stevenson, I deeply regret violence and am glad that the local authorities and state authorities in Tennessee have shown such a firm determination to continue this a government of laws rather than of men.

"Working in consonence with the opinion of Federal Judge Taylor, the local district judge, the mayor, attorneys for the school board and state officials obviously have the authority and the determination to keep the peace and carry out their responsibilities in a legal and lawful manner. Their actions have been commendable in a serious and difficult situation."
